Replicator winning the Group 3 Fernhill Handicap at Randwick on Derby Day

REPLICATOR

A new innovation from some of the racing men at Tatts is the arrival of Tattersalls Club Racing Colours.

First seen at the track on Tatts Men, who unfortunately could only manage a second at the provincials in a short racing career, they have played a role at the recent Autumn Carnival at Randwick.

Cameron Horne, the major shareholder and manager of Replicator, rode the best race ever seen from a "grandstand jockey" as Replicator put up an excellent performance to win the Group 3 Fernhill Handicap at Randwick on Derby Day. Dark Blue with White Diamond sleeves and cap flashed over the line first in a tight finish that cements the place of this Danehill colt in the record books at Randwick and at Tattersalls Club.

Replicator was the first horse to carry the Tattersalls racing colours to victory (at Kembla Grange) and the first stakeswinner to carry them to victory. Replicator will now carry the Tattersalls racing colours through his racing career - ensuring Tattersalls Club continues to be represented at major carnivals throughout the year.

Returning to scale.

For those club members who might be interested, the Tattersalls Club Racing Colours are available for any Tattersalls member to use on their horse(s). Anthony Cummings has the colours at his stable at Randwick and can be contacted through the club.

Mark Bartrop
Tattersalls Secretary

Welcome to all the new members who have joined the club in the first half of the year, I hope that the Club is everything you expected. The AGM will have been held by the time this newsletter comes out and I look forward to an exciting year ahead with the elected Committee.

The members functions held during the first half of the year have been exciting occasions, the highlights being the Young Members' Night, CEO's Lunch and Black Tie Boxing. We have plenty of members functions planned for the second half of the year so check our website for all the information and dates.

Once again I would urge all members to visit the Club's Brasserie, Executive Chef Simon Flanders is producing some truly fabulous meals.

Members should note that as from 4 July 2005, under the Smoke-free Environment Amendment Act 2004, smoking will no longer be permitted in the Members Bar, the only area members and their guests will be permitted to smoke will be in the Snooker Room.

See you round the Club

By the time that this message is published the Club's AGM will be behind us and the results of the election for the Committee will be in. Whatever the result, it has been a good thing to see the high level of interest that the elections have stimulated. It is also a good thing that members are willing to stand for election and to give something back to the Club. We shall all be much the better for that and I encourage members to consider putting themselves forward in the future.

May and June are busy months in our social calendar. If you missed Black Tie Boxing, you missed a cracker of a night. The production for this occasion is now truly superb. The contests in the ring are still the highlight of the night, but there is so much more. Vince Sorrenti was at his usual best, although Andrew Coorey scored early points with a very funny opening to the night and a running commentary that everyone enjoyed. The food, the wine, the music - and ultimately the cigars for many, topped off another great night at Tatts.

Membership proposals are being reviewed by the Committee at a consistent rate of between 15 and 20 per month meaning that we are on target for this year. If you are a new member and you are yet to feel as though you know your way around the Club - call into one of our many social or sporting groups. Please be sure to contact Matt North, our Membership Manager, Brad Pamp in the AD or any of the staff or Committee. We all get a great deal out of Tattersalls Club and we are keen to share it with you.

Join the chairman on the last Thursday of each month following the committee meeting for free drinks in the members' bar.

SNOOKER REPORT

The Calcutta Auction and Presentation Dinner was conducted in the Club's third floor rooms on 28 April 2005 and now the boxes are loaded, the green light is on and we await the bunny for the start of the competition.

The bunny, in this case, is the conclusion of the Christmas (in July) Cup, with the present Semi-Finalists being Michael Bradstreet, Kaz Pociask and Eddie Crane. Get on with it guys.

Brae Antcliffe is in the final of both the Championship and Handicap Billiards, with Adrian Abbott and Peter Twigg being his respective opponents.

The Lightning Snooker Night held on Thursday 12 May 2005 lived up to its amended name, as it was nearly dawn on Friday 13th when it finished.

That day proved to be unlucky for John Simpson, who was beaten by Declan Farrelly in the final. Declan (a new competitor) rose without trace but the rumour that he is Paddy Morgan's twin who was separated at birth is untrue, however, his days on 65 handicap are finished. The matches and dinner were well attended and the spirit of Tattersalls' camaraderie prevailed in the Tournament.

Trigger Woollard confided his conviction that 2005 would be his year to win the Calcutta. It coincides with the release of the last Star Wars film and as his birthday is the same as Luke Skywalker. May the Fourth be with you Trigger. He was, unfortunately, eliminated before dinner in the lightning, that being a reversal similar to Suzie O'Neill losing the Sydney 2000, 100 metre butterfly to the curiously named Misty Hyman. Will Henneberry also made an early exit, being defeated by Cameron Horne. Unlike Quentin Hann, the player claimed by the English Sun to have taken bribes to throw a match, Will was just a victim of his own considerable inability to play Snooker.

In cross training news, Colin Rooke was considerably underwhelmed to be omitted in the last newsletter from the list of owner/ members of the yacht Blind Justice. He suggests that it be renamed Overlooked Rooke. The poker game produced some extraordinary hands. Cameron Horne had four Queens with an Ace, and some hands later Kaz filled on the draw to have a Royal Routine in hearts. There was also a spirited discussion as to whether we should play the rules according to Hoyle or, as suggested by Will Ryan, those as applied in the Yukon in 1878.

The next Snooker Night will be held on Thursday 9 June and guests are welcome. Unlike the last invitation galah night, having a tattoo is not an essential for attending Tatts' Snooker rooms. The Club has commenced playing interclub competition. We wish our players every success.

Boardriders' weekend

Tattersalls Boardriders were well represented at Byron Bay for the annual Byron Bay swim on Sunday May 1st. The boardriders who journey to Byron Bay at this wonderful time of the year, also pack their surfboards, and fit in a few extra days.

The Clyne brothers, Justin and Shaun, were not disappointed, surfing The Pass and Wategos at its best for a few days before the swim. Richard Jagger also fitted in some surfing at Byron.

Luke Morgan, Kahuna, Phil Reichelt and Brendon Maher journeyed to Currumbin / Snapper Rocks area, after the weekend, and also lucked out. Currumbin Point, at the river mouth, was really pumping. An opportune ground swell, coupled with a nice south-easterly off shore wind, kept the wave quality up all that week. Then there is always a wonderful breakfast at the Currumbin Surf Club.

Luke Morgan was bombarded with mobile phone calls after his return to Sydney on Tuesday, informing him on what he was missing. Luke also received the "goose of the week award", for losing the car keys down the wheelwell of his rental car, just when time was of the essence, and we were trying to get him back on a flight to Sydney.

A great couple of days for the Tatts boardriders up at Byron and Currumbin.

CUT-AWAY COLLARS, DOUBLE CUFFS and WHAT'S THIS ABOUT CUFF-LINKS?

Every morning, says V.M., a lot of hard-working chaps slip into the serious boardroom suit, an anonymous shirt and the Problems of Business all in one seamless movement.

But quite often lately, characters who seem to be ahead of the game, come in for a shirt and ask, "What's fresh in cut-away collar shapes?" Such a customer is also asking for the double-cuff sleeve and impressive (or maybe witty) cuff-links.

He's just having fun? He's winning, too.

Swimming

Oldies relay – Alan Brown, Peter Joseph, Rod Austin and Peter Gibson

Youngies relay (new Aust record for 160+) Peter Thiel, Mick Gillis, Grant Peters, John Harvey

Peters, Thiel, Gillis, Harvey, Gibson.
Seated: Austin, Joseph, Brown

AUSSIE MASTERS SWIMMING

The Aussie Masters Swimming Championships were held in Hobart at the end of March. Eight Tatts swimmers headed to Hobart to compete. Representing the club were Peter Joseph who picked up 2nds in the 50, 100 and 200m breaststroke, Grant Peters who picked up 1sts in the 100 and 200m Freestyle (with a new state record in the 200m freestyle), Alan Brown who finished 3rd in the 50 Freestyle, Peter Gibson who finished 2nd in the 50 Freestyle, and 3rd in the 100 freestyle, John Harvey who finished 1st in the 400m freestyle, 2nd in the 200m freestyle and 3rd in the 50 and 100m freestyle, and Peter Thiel who finished 1st in the 800m freestyle and 100m breaststroke, 2nd in the 50 freestyle and 200 breaststroke and 3rd in the 100m freestyle.

The team of Alan Brown, Peter Joseph, Rod Austin and Peter Gibson won the 240+ age group in both the 4 x 50m Medley relay and the 4 x 50m Freestyle relay. Mick Gillis, John Harvey, Grant Peters and Peter Thiel managed to break the national record for the 160+ age group 4 x 50 Freestyle relay record by almost a second, with the old mark standing for almost 16 years. Tatts now holds the National Record for both the 160+ and the 120+ 4 x 50 Freestyle relays.

OCEAN SWIMS

A gaggle of Tatts swimmers entered the Shark Island Classic on 13 March 2005. Quick conditions saw Bruce Baird lead the way as usual, coming 1st in his age group. Marty McConnell was 8th in his age and 134th overall. Glenn Atkins was 11th in his age group and 171st overall. Impressive swims were also registered by Luke Morgan, Alex Thorpe, Cronulla local Ben Dillon and Phil Reichelt. A new 11km swim from Blues Point to Manly wharf was held on the same day as the Cronulla swim this year. Peter Thiel ended up swimming the race solo after the team he was entered in was forced out of the race at the last minute due to a mechanical failure on the support boat.

The Balmoral Swim was back again this year, and Tatts members including Alex Pope, Richard Jagger, Peter Thiel, Mick Gillis and Callum MacLeod were in attendance. Peter Thiel ended up 9th overall and 2nd in his age group, Mick Gillis was 13th overall and 6th in his age group, and Richard Jagger was 17th overall and 2nd in his age group. The real race, however, between Alex Pope and Callum MacLeod was won by Alex Pope, who then backed up in the relay, knocking Callum off again over the shorter 200m distance. The relay team of Richard Jagger, Alex Pope, Peter Thiel and Rob Gillespie managed to just beat containing Tatts members Callum MacLeod and Mick Gillis to take out the relay category.

Tattersalls won the South Head Rough Water Swim, a race that takes swimmers 11km from Bondi Beach to Watson's Bay. With the assistance of John Tierney who donated his boat and captaincy for the day, and with the guidance of James Crook who paddled for the team, Tattersalls took out the race for the fourth year running. A second team of Luke Morgan, Phil Reichelt, Ben Dillon and Jonathan Papalia also had a good race, with Alex Pope steering the boat, and Tom Nolan paddling (before the rough conditions sent him home). Michael Ward and Alex Thorpe also swam the race in other teams. Brendan Maher took on the race solo, however the rough conditions and blue bottles ended his campaign.

The Mollymook swim attracted a few Tatts members, and in relatively calm conditions, Shaun Clyne finished 9th overall, James Crooke 39th overall, and Justin Clyne 113th overall.

Once more the Byron swim marked the end of the NSW ocean swim calendar. Meeting up a couple of days before the race, Tatts made sure it gave plenty of support to the swim's main sponsor – the Byron Beach Hotel. With over 1250 entrants this year, the swim continues to get bigger and bigger. Peter Thiel finished up best of the Tatts boys with 1st in his age group, and 20th overall, followed by Shaun Clyne 43rd overall, and Richard Jagger 69th overall and 2nd in his age group.
